Counselors' Corner

-7th grade Counselor: Mrs. Sandra De Leon

-8th grade Counselor: Ms. Danette Vargas

-Military Life Counselor: Mr. Ruben Reyes

-September 10-16 is National Suicide Prevention Week.

-FBJH will be implementing the Signs of Suicide (SOS) Youth Suicide Prevention Program. This program has been approved by TEA as best practices and by the FBISD School Health & Safety Committee (SHAC). The program is designed to teach students how to identify signs of depression in themselves and their peers, while providing materials that support school professionals and parents in recognizing at-risk students and taking appropriate action.

-A parent informational presentation will be held Thursday, August 31st at the FBJH Cafeteria. Students will also take home a parental permission letter August 21, 2023. Letters will be due September 1st. Contact counselors for more information.

-Anchored4Life Club is sponsored by the US Navy. It is a club that welcomes all students and works at creating a positive school environment. The junior high counselors are the sponsors for this club. See your counselor if you would like to join.

-Parents, you can still apply for free and reduced lunch on the FBISD Nutrition website.
