Library News:

Monthly Reading Challenges continue! This month's challenge allows students to become the author. They can choose one of three writing prompts to complete. This month they are working to earn the yellow duck and, of course, candy. Students can still join the Library's Google Classroom (code: PCJPYRC) or see Mrs. Chouinard in the library for more information.

AROUND CAMPUS

Counselors' Corner:

- Anchored4Life's quote of the month is, "Always offer a smile to someone who lost theirs."
- November 13th is World Kindness Day.
- October was National Bully Prevention Awareness Month. Anchored4Life Real Talk topics focused on ways we can prevent bullying by knowing what to do if it happens to you, standing up for others, treat everyone with respect, and protect yourself from cyberbullying.
- Mrs. De Leon, Ms. Vargas, & Mr. Reyes

BE KIND.

Nurse's Corner:

- Vision and Hearing Screenings have been completed. Referral letters have been sent out for those students who need a referral to a provider.
- Spinal Screenings have been completed. Referral letters have been sent out for those students who need a referral to a provider.
- Flu season has started once again. Helpful tips to prevent getting ill include:
 - *Getting the flu vaccination.
 - *Cover your mouth and nose with your arm when sneezing/coughing.
 - *Frequently wash hands with soap and warm water for 20 seconds.
- *If you are sick, please stay home from school and work, and stay away from others until you are better. For more information about the flu please visit <https://www.cdc.gov/flu>.
- Reminder: Students are not allowed to bring any medications to school under any circumstances. Parents are required to bring all medication in and fill out a medication administration form.
- If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at 361-694-9388. -Nurse Mallory
